

Class is Open

Welcome to English 1C: Advanced Composition at Sierra College.

Our class is open for those of you who would like to begin early--although our official start date is Monday, August 25th.

Course Website

To access our course website, go to: <https://sierra.instructure.com>. If you have trouble logging in, click the Help button at the bottom of the Canvas Login page.

After you login, you'll see the link to Week One, which will provide information about how to begin taking the course.

Communicating

If you have any questions about this class, post them in the General Course Questions Discussion Board forum, so the entire class can benefit from the answer. I'll be on the Discussion Board often to answer your questions and make sure your first week is a positive experience. If you have a private question, you can send an email to my smendez3@sierracollege.edu address.

I won't be sending broadcast emails now that our course has begun. All information about the course will be posted on our Weekly Outlines. We will also communicate in the Discussion Board and on our Google group.

Let's Get Started

I'm looking forward to meeting everyone!
